

Hi, there! I'm Neha Uniyal.

From doodles and scribbles to Architecture and Graphic Design, my journey has been a sparkling ride. Doodling has always been my companion telling stories of life and articulating my thoughts. My formal education in Graphic Design has helped me in shaping those snippets which I now aim to take forward.

Hobbies

Apart from doodling, I spend my time clicking pictures of little things in nature and food. It keeps me sane and makes me appreciate small things around. Mimicking is another part of me which helps me go gaga in life and yes how can I forget chai, the love of my life!
